Sports Law in India:

Entry 33 in the Seventh Schedule of our Constitution has provided a provision for the State as well as Centre to make and enact laws on regulation, registration and recognition of Associations involved in Sports. In India, the provincial Sports Bodies work under non profit making organisations either under the Societies Registration Act or the Company law jurisdiction, Rule and Regulation like statutory orders and act only as secondary legislations supplementing Laws.

The Competition Law (2002) and Intellectual Property Rights Laws promotes Competition Advocacy, forbids abuse of dominance and anti – competitive agreements.

Aims of the Seminar:

- * Indian Sports Policies vis-à-vis to the Olympic Laws;
- * Organisational Matter of Indian Sports Organisation with reference to the Olympic Laws;
- * Research in Sports Law in India and
- * Sports Arbitration and Mediation need for constitution of a, “Sports Dispute Redressal Arbitration mechanism” independent of Indian Olympic Association, National Sports Organisation and Bureaucratic influence as per Rule – 59 of the Olympic Charter and Court of Arbitration for Sports, Lausanne, Switzerland..
- * Doping a menace for Athlete and application of WADA in Indian Sports
- * Players Agents World Wide and Legal Aspects in Indian Sports
- * Harassments in Sports
- * Broadcasting and TV rights
- * Scope of International Arbitration Award (CAS) on Indian Sports
