

IASL

21 Annual Congress of The International Association Sport law

3-5 November 2015
Marrakesh, Morocco

Taking place in Arabic, English, French and Greek

The IASL 21st congress is considered the most important global event in the field of sports Law. It is a great opportunity for the Middle East (since it is the first time it is conducted in the region) to be introduced to the recent developments in sports Law and judiciary and the means of which they are implemented. The congress will offer a line- up of top-class speakerstoptical discussions and relevant news, and also an excellent opportunity to network .

Who Should Attend :

All sports leaderships, legal consultants and arbitrators, university professors of Law and sports Management, business professionals in media and business enterprises of sports' interest and sports' investors, practicing sports lawyers, sports law and sports studies students and faculty members .

The Congress Focuses on :

Sports' institutes and governance, Sports associations' fundamental regulations and how to regulate the relationship with/between their members and the Olympic committees, national and international conflict resolving and arbitration in sports. The congress will also extensively address the topic of anti-doping and women's sports. Parallel to the legal side the congress will address the economy, social and mass communication side of sports as well as lucrative sports investments opportunities.
